WORKSHOPS
(can be taken for degree credit)

MUS 891 sec. 303 [3 credits]
Choral Music Experience Institute
June 23-27, M-T-W-Th-F, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
HSU Community Music School
4933 S. Hagadorn Road, East Lansing
Sandra Drew, professor of choral music, MSU
Lee R. Rasmussen, professor and director of choral activities, College of St. Scholastica
The CME annual course will include opportunities for conducting study, master classes, score study, principles of vocal development, and rehearsal strategies. The in-residence choir will be the MSU Children’s and Youth Choirs, prepared by Director Kyle Zeuch. Students may register for either MSU credit or CME certification for professional development credit. Levels 1-3. Registration information and options can be viewed at choralmusicexperience.com/courses/#/annual-course/

MUS 891 sec. 304 [2 credits]
Jazz Pedagogy
June 20-22, T-W-Th-F, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
103 Music Practice Building
MSU Jazz Studies Faculty*; Rodney Whitaker, professor of jazz studies; Etienne Charles, associate professor of jazz trumpet; Xavier Davis, associate professor of jazz piano; Michael Dease, assistant professor of jazz trombone; Randy Gelispie, instructor of jazz drums; Diego Rivera, associate professor of jazz studies, saxophone and improvisation
Exploring four important aspects of jazz pedagogy; improvisation, big band techniques, instrument technique and jazz combos—w/ MSU Jazz Ensemble

MUS 891 sec. 305 [1 credit]
Successful Work with Middle School and High School Tenors and Basses
July 15-16, Sa-Su, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
103 Music Practice Building
Trey Jacobs, director of choir studies, Nashville School of the Arts, and Erich Wangeman, vocal music director, Traverse City West High School
This session will address vocal technique, vocal warm ups, repertoire, social-emotional issues, and building community. A group of middle and high school tenors and basses will help demonstrate the vocal techniques and warm ups that will be presented.

MUS 891 sec. 306 [2 credits]
Vocal Music Educators’ Workshop I
Aug. 3-4, W-Th-F, 8:30 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Class meets at the Radisson Hotel, Lansing
This workshop, held in conjunction with the Michigan School Vocal Music Association and the Michigan Music Educators Association, is designed for vocal music teachers at the elementary through high school levels wishing to improve their conducting skills and rehearsal techniques and their knowledge of appropriate repertoire. Prior to attending, please contact the Graduate Office at musgrad@msu.edu for course expectations and assignments.

* To receive credit you must register through both MSU (for MSU credit) and with MSU or MSVMA (for conference fees and participation). For more information, contact MSU at music.msu.edu/next-step/summer.
The College of Music at Michigan State University fosters innovation and professional excellence. Our students thrive in a discovery-rich environment that inspires them to develop a creative style that is uniquely theirs. Our graduates are found on the world’s most prestigious stages, in leading symphony orchestras, in schools, in outstanding ensembles, and in the country’s most successful music education programs. As graduates, our alumni work tirelessly to transform the world of music with their vision, talent, and creativity.

SUMMER MASTERS’ DEGREE PROGRAMS AND CLASSES

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs

Choral Conducting: A degree in music education or choral conducting can be completed in just three summers. You’ll learn from and interact with some of the nation’s leading music education, performers, and directors. Both programs are fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music. Course details are provided below. You may also take individual courses without seeking a degree by enrolling as a Lifelong Education student through MSU.

Summer Workshop Details

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops within the College of Music carefully review the course descriptions and prerequisites. Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music! For more information, visit www.music.msu.edu/admissions.

Students must submit two applications: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

New Directions Summer Scholars Program (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Music Education or Choral Conducting)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops within the College of Music carefully review the course descriptions and prerequisites. Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music! For more information, visit www.music.msu.edu/admissions.

Students must submit two applications: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music! For more information, visit www.music.msu.edu/admissions.

Students must submit two applications: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.

Summer Masters’ Degree Programs (Not Taking A Degree)

Students interested in attending one or more courses or workshops without seeking a degree must submit two application forms: one to Michigan State University and one to the College of Music. Summer Masters’ Degree Programs Offered by the College of Music: MUS 446, 447, 448, 449 [3 credits] Music Curriculum and Methodology Methods of teaching music in the elementary and secondary grades. MUS 440, 441, 442, 443 [2 credits] Summer Music Programs: Michigan State University presents summer music programs in a wide variety of locations, including Boston, Chicago, and New York. Each program offers a unique experience in music education, performance, and research.

NEW DIRECTIONS SUMMER SCHOLARS PROGRAM

Scholarships are available to a select number of outstanding music teachers to participate in the New Directions Summer Scholars Program. This program is designed to help music educators and students choose from a wide variety of classes and workshops, over a three-summer period, designed to help teachers develop, as well as improve and expand their skills and knowledge.

Contact: Mitchell Robinson, chair of the music education department.