We have a wonderful and very diverse season planned this year! Our musical offerings include the finest chamber music, fully staged operas, major choral, orchestral, and band productions, award-winning jazz, an excellent array of artist-faculty and guest artist recitals, world premieres, exciting contemporary music, and something new—the “Taylor Johnston Early Music Series,” three concerts with renowned guest artists focused on historically informed performances of music from the Baroque and Renaissance periods. Kicking off the MSU Federal Credit Union Showcase Series, our choral and orchestral ensembles join together to perform Handel’s beloved and inspiring “Messiah” in December, followed by “A Jazzy Little Christmas,” featuring the MSU Professors of Jazz. Two new showcase events, “A Spanish Serenade” and “International Chamber Soloists with Violinist Dmitri Berlinsky,” will satisfy song and string lovers. Familiar favorites include the Joanne and Bill Church West Circle Series, Cello Plus Chamber Music Festival, Jazz Spectacular, and Latin IS America Festival—something for every musical taste! Please join us often in our renovated, intimate venues for one of life’s greatest pleasures—music.

SPRING: The Savage Land by Jin Xiang; and Bernstein Sings America
3/23 Wednesday, 7:30 p.m.
3/25 Friday, 8:00 p.m.
3/26 Saturday, 8:00 p.m.
3/27 Sunday, 3:00 p.m.
FAIRCHILD THEATRE, MSU AUDITORIUM
DIRECTOR Melanie Helton

The spring opera presentation marks the 10th anniversary of MSU/China Vocal Arts Collaboration with a double bill of theatrical music from both worlds. A mix of classical music and Chinese folk music, A Savage Land (sung in Chinese) is set in northern China in the 1920s and centers on a wrongfully imprisoned man who wreaks vengeance on those responsible for his fate. Next, a rollicking revue of the music of Leonard Bernstein follows, featuring pieces from On the Town, Wonderful Town, West Side Story, and Trouble in Tahiti. Both shows will include Chinese and MSU students, and will be performed in Beijing and on MSU’s campus.

MSU ORCHESTRAS The Symphony Orchestra, directed by Kevin Noe, is comprised of some of the most advanced string, wind, brass, and percussion musicians in the College of Music. It maintains an intense schedule of six orchestral performances and two full opera productions each season. The repertoire chosen is often advanced, and draws from both the well-established orchestral canon and new works by living composers. Participation in the Symphony Orchestra is by audition only. The Concert Orchestra, which is open to students, staff, and faculty from all corners of the university regardless of major, presents four concerts per year and is designed to be a community-building artistic experience for all involved.

MSU’s Choral Ensembles perform secular and sacred music in all styles and genres representing many eras and cultures. David Rayl directs the University Chorale, which is comprised of the best graduate and upper-level undergraduate singers in the College of Music. State Singers, directed by Jonathan Reed, includes music majors and non-music majors and is recognized as the oldest singing organization on the MSU campus. Women’s Chamber Ensemble, led by Sandra Snow, focuses on more contemporary repertoire. Men’s Glee Club and Women’s Glee Club are popular ensembles performing in the glee tradition. A mixed choir of mostly undergraduate singers, Campus Choir performs a wide variety of music from cultures around the world. The Chamber Choir performs music from a range of stylistic periods. Choral Union, a large mixed chorus from the community, focuses on major choral and orchestral works.

ABOUT US

AS A PREMIER professional training ground for performers, composers, music educators, and scholars, the College of Music at Michigan State University prepares students to become world-class musicians working at the frontiers of their art. Our reputation attracts some of the world’s leading teachers to our faculty, who together mentor the next generation of outstanding artists and create a standard of excellence to which our students aspire. Within a welcoming and supportive community, our students learn how to discover new worlds of artistic expression, to imagine and inspire, and to develop a creative style that is uniquely their own. Our graduates are found on the world’s concert stages, on the faculties of the nation’s best schools of music, in outstanding ensembles, and in the country’s most successful music education programs.
