GREETINGS

What a season we’ve got planned for you with exciting and diverse programming in 2014-2015! With beautifully renovated venues, internationally renowned artists, and musical offerings from chamber and classical to Latin and swinging jazz, we invite you to peruse this brochure and then join us for some wonderful music making.

SOMETHING NEW. To celebrate our inaugural year hosting concerts and recitals in Fairchild Theatre, the College of Music presents our first Showcase Series concert of the season—Fairchild Fanfare—on September 13. Part of the MSU Federal Credit Union Showcase Series, this fast-paced montage features representative ensembles and individuals who now make their “musical home” in the acoustically superb Fairchild Theatre: choral, jazz, solo faculty artists, West Circle Series, Musique 21, and opera.

Also included in our season are some familiar favorites: two fully staged operas, holiday shows, a piano monster concert, our annual Joanne and Bill Church West Circle Series, the 15th annual Cello Plus Chamber Music Festival, sponsored this year by Selma and the late Stanley Hollander, and a spectacular jazz series, along with many concerts featuring orchestral, wind, percussion, and choral ensembles.

As always, thank you for your support and your patronage. To stay connected with everything the MSU College of Music offers, visit music.msu.edu. We look forward to seeing you in the season ahead.

James Forger
Dean, College of Music

Ruggiero Allifranchini, violin
Cello Plus
April 6-12 • Fairchild Theatre
See page 8

Ruggiero Allifranchini, associate concertmaster of the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, studied at the New School in Philadelphia and at the Curtis Institute of Music. He cofounded the Borromeo String Quartet, with which he played exclusively for 11 years. Over the past few seasons he has played as guest concertmaster with the Hong Kong Philharmonic and the Minnesota Orchestra.

Robert Beaser, composer
Wind Symphony
(The End of Knowing, a world premiere)
Thursday, September 25
7:30 p.m. Cobb Great Hall

Robert Beaser has emerged as one of the most accomplished creative musicians of his generation. Since 1982, when the New York Times wrote that he possessed a “lyrical gift comparable to that of the late Samuel Barber,” his music has won international acclaim for its balance between dramatic sweep and architectural clarity.

Daniel Beckwith, conductor, pianist
Handel’s Xerxes
March 25, 27, 29, 29
Fairchild Theatre. See page 8

Daniel Beckwith has conducted at the Metropolitan Opera, the Glyndebourne Festival, Grand Théâtre du Genève, San Francisco Opera, Houston Grand Opera, and Seattle Opera, among others. He has accompanied such artists as Renée Fleming, Marilyn Horne, and Frederica von Stade, and will join leading soloist, recitalist, chamber ensembles, and wrote several new works for the orchestra. More recently, he was the artistic director of the Cartagena International Festival of Music. He has been a medal winner at the Tchaikovsky and Queen Elisabeth Piano competitions, and received the Avery Fisher Career Grant.

Christian McBride, jazz bass
MSUCFJ Jazz Artist in Residence
October 9-October 13

Grammy winner Christian McBride has played with hundreds of artists, from McCoy Tyner and Diana Krall to Sting. He has served as artistic director at Jazz Aspen Snowmass summer program and the Dave Brubeck Institute, and was co-director of the Jazz Museum in Harlem. His recordings include The Philadelphia Experiment, Vertical Vision, Live at Tonic, and his latest release Out Here.

Take 6
Jazz: Spirituals, Prayer and Protest Concert
Sunday, January 18 | 3:00 and 7:00 p.m. Fairchild Theatre
The most awarded vocal group in history (10 Grammy Awards, 10 Dove Awards, a Soul Train Award, and more) has toured across the globe, collaborated across genres, and is recognized as the pre-eminent a capella group in the world. Members Claude McKnight, Mark Kimble, Joel Kibble, Dave Thomas, Alvin Chea and Kristian Dentley unite in crystal clear harmony of gospel, jazz, R&B, and pop.

The Orchid Ensemble
Musique 21
March 3 • Fairchild Theatre

Established in 1997, the JUNO Award–nominated Orchid Ensemble is Lan Tung on the erhu/Chinese violin, Yu-Chen Wang on the zheng/Chinese zither, and Jonathan Bernard on percussion. The ensemble, which blends ancient musical instruments and traditions from China and beyond, has been tirelessly developing an innovative musical genre based on the cultural exchange between Western and Asian musicians.

Stephen Prutsman, piano
Cello Plus
April 6-12 • Fairchild Theatre
See page 7

Stephen Prutsman has served as artistic partner with the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, where he conducted concerts from the keyboard, performed in chamber ensembles, and wrote several new works for the orchestra. More recently, he was the artistic director of the Cartagena International Festival of Music. He has been a medal winner at the Tchaikovsky and Queen Elisabeth Piano competitions, and received the Avery Fisher Career Grant.

Michael Sachs, trumpet
Wind Symphony (Soloist)
Thursday, October 23
7:30 p.m. Cobb Great Hall

Michael Sachs, with the Cleveland Orchestra since 1988, is recognized internationally as a leading soloist, recitalist, chamber musician, author, and clinician. He is frequently featured as soloist with the Cleveland Orchestra, and has been guest soloist with numerous orchestras and chamber groups. He also serves as head of the trumpet department at the Cleveland Institute of Music.
MSU ENSEMBLES in the College of Music include three big bands: Jazz Orchestra I, Jazz Orchestra II, and Jazz Orchestra III, each made up of 18 members, and conducted by Rodney Whitaker, Etienne Charles and Michael Dease, respectively. The groups play the repertoire of the great jazz masters as well as a wide range of soul, swing, blues, and gospel. The four Jazz Octets are eight-piece ensembles that blend the sounds of big band with small group performance. There are also 12 Jazz Combos, each consisting of four to six members.

MUSIQUE 21 is a project-based group with flexible instrumentation focusing on new works. Utilizing a variety of media including theatre, film, and movement, this troupe pushes the envelope of what a 21st-century performance can be. Creating a new performance style that can only be called a "Theatre of Music," it is enthusiastically celebrated by audiences and critics alike.

MSU BANDS perform the full spectrum of wind repertoire including chamber music. The Wind Symphony is comprised of graduate and upper-division undergraduate students and performs works that require as few as six players as well as the full 55-member ensemble. Conducted by Kevin Sedatole, the group presents six concerts during the academic year with additional national performances. The Symphony Band consists of upper division undergraduate music majors. Conducted by John Madden, this ensemble maintains an active performance schedule. Concert Band consists of undergraduate music majors and non-majors. This ensemble presents four concerts during the academic year and is conducted by Cormac Cannon. Campus Band provides playing opportunities for non-music majors campus wide and gives two concerts per semester.

MSU'S CHORAL ENSEMBLES perform secular and sacred music in all styles and genres representing many eras and cultures. David Rayl directs the University Chorale, which is comprised of the best graduate and upper-level undergraduate singers in the College of Music. State Singers, directed by Jonathan Reed, includes music majors and non-music majors and is recognized as the oldest singing organization on the MSU campus. Women's Chamber Ensemble, led by Sandra Snow, focuses on more contemporary repertoire. Men's Glee Club and Women's Glee Club are popular ensembles performing in the glee tradition. A mixed choir of mostly undergraduate singers, Campus Choir performs a wide variety of music from cultures around the world. The Chamber Choir performs music from a range of stylistic periods. Choral Union, a large mixed chorus from the community, focuses on major choral and orchestral works.

About Us

As a premier professional training ground for performers, composers, music educators, and scholars, the College of Music at Michigan State University prepares students to become world-class musicians working at the frontiers of their art. Our reputation attracts some of the world’s leading teachers to our faculty, who together mentor the next generation of outstanding artists and create a standard of excellence to which our students aspire. Within a welcoming and supportive community, our students learn how to discover new worlds of artistic expression, to imagine and inspire, and to develop a creative style that is uniquely their own. Our graduates are found on the world’s concert stages, on the faculties of the nation’s best schools of music, in outstanding ensembles, and in the country’s most successful music education programs.
